

Jennifer Brosious was invited to serve on the Board in 2018, while her mother, Lorraine Brosious, was a Partnerships client.

Her family has a long tradition of serving the community – her mother helped create the beloved Whitneyville Church Nursery School, serving as the director for 32 years.

Jennifer's eclectic background includes experience performing professionally as a dancer in the AMAN Folk Ensemble through which she performed at the opening of the EPCOT center and working in graphic arts including as Supervisor of the art department of the Gemological Institute of America. She serves currently as co-owner of and teacher at Your Community Yoga Center, now in its 16th year.

Jennifer graduated from the University of Connecticut at Storrs with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Fine Arts and also values her post-graduate studies through many of the programs offered by Landmark Education.
